

Università IULM, based in Milan, is the leading private university in Italy for Communication Studies, Languages, Tourism and Creative Industries.

IULM offers the most deserving Mexican students a 50% reduction on the first-year tuition fee based on the academic background.

In order to qualify for the reduction, students must:

- attend at least 50% of Encuentro Creativo activities
- possess (or obtain by June 2024) an admission qualification outside Italy with a mark above 80%
- be admitted to a Bachelor's or 2-year Master's program starting in the academic year 2024-2025
- confirm enrollment in a Bachelor's or 2-year Master's program starting in the academic year 2024-2025

Reductions are confirmed to up to 20 eligible candidates on a first come, first served basis until all benefits have been assigned.

The benefit is renewable for the following years based on the academic standing.
